

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The American Correctional Association is saluting the men and women who run our correctional institutions during the week of May 3-9, 1987; and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota has more than 225 of these loyal and dedicated public servants employed as correctional officers; and,

WHEREAS, these correctional officers are dedicated to making the penitentiary system work and to helping inmates become useful and productive citizens; and,

WHEREAS, these public servants work in a system which must operate every hour of every day of the year, and they perform their duties with precision and pride in their work at all times, be it holiday or not; and,

WHEREAS, these effective public servants receive little public recognition or acclaim for the valuable work they do in protecting society while working with adult offenders to improve their lot; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to join the American Correctional Association in saluting these valued public employees:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of May 3-9, 1987, as

CORRECTIONAL OFFICERS WEEK

in South Dakota

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourth Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST

JOHN HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
